North American Kant Society – Midwest Study Group
Annual Conference, November 11-12, 2006
Marquette University, Milwaukee, WI

Conference Program

Saturday, November 11:
All events at Marquette University, Alumni Memorial Union, 227

11:30-12:00  Lunch Reception

12:00  Corey W. Dyck (University of British Columbia, Okanagan)
Kant’s Account of Intuition in the Early 1770’s and the Discovery of the Deduction Problem

1:30  Bryan Hall (Indiana University Southeast)
Appearance and the Problem of Affection in Kant

3:00  Matthew Rukgaber (University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign)
The Key to Transcendental Philosophy: Space, Time, and the Body in Kant

4:30  Keynote Address: Rudolf A. Makkreel (Emory University)
Kant and Reflective Topology: Some Hermeneutic Implications of the Limit-Bound Distinction

6:00  10th Anniversary Tribute and Memorial Minutes, followed by Reception & Business Meeting

7:30  Dinner at Karl Ratzsch’s Restaurant (reservations required)

Sunday, November 12:
All events at the Astor Hotel, Bach Room

8:30-9:00  Coffee and Pastries

9:00  Colin Hahn (Marquette University)
The Status of the Schematism: Assessing the Literature on Third Things and Rules
10:30 Matthew Peters (Loyola Marymount University)
The Problem of the Schematism
(Winner of the Graduate Student Stipend)

12:00 Kyla Ebels Duggan (Northwestern University)
Inner Freedom and Required Ends

1:30 End of Meeting

The local organizers at Marquette University are Sebastian Luft (Philosophy), Claudia Schmidt (Philosophy), and Philip Rossi (Theology). For information on travel, accommodations, banquet reservations, and other arrangements, visit our website at http://academic.mu.edu/phil/lufts/KantConference.htm

The 2006 meeting of the Midwest Study Group has been supported by the North American Kant Society, the German Consulate in Chicago, and the Department of Philosophy, the Department of Theology, and the Klingler College of Arts and Sciences at Marquette University.

The Program Committee and the Local Arrangements Committee dedicate their work in planning this 10th anniversary conference of the Midwest Study Group to the memory of Hans Seigfried.

The goal of the Midwest Study Group of the North American Kant Society is to advance the discussion of Kant and to promote interaction among Kant scholars. The meeting is free and open to all.