Newer Research in German Philosophy

Innocence
Cognition and Interest
Transcendental Idealism
Civil Religion

Workshop

Thursday, November 29, 2012
Haggerty Museum of Art
Marquette University – Department of Philosophy
Organized by Sebastian Luft

~~~~~~~~~~
Claudia Schmidt in Memoriam
~~~~~~~~~~

1:00-1:15 Welcome: James B. South, Chair, Department of Philosophy
Introduction: Sebastian Luft

Session I
Chair: Ingvild Torsen (Marquette University)

1:15-2:15 Mark Alznauer (Northwestern University)
Hegel’s Theory of Innocence

2:15-3:15 Michael Vater (Marquette University)
Erkenntnis [Cognition] and Interesse [Interest] in Fichte’s “Vocation of Man”

3:15-3:45 Coffee Break

Session II
Chair: Howard Kainz (Marquette University)

3:45-4:45 Sebastian Luft (Marquette University)
Philosophy as Transcendental Idealism: A Systematic Reconstruction

4:45-5:45 Günter Zöller (LMU München/McGill University)
The Virtuous Republic. Rousseau and Kant on Civil Religion

6:00-7:00 Reception

Generously funded by the Helen Way Klingler Fellowship Grant
Free and open to the public; please RSVP before November 18.
For questions, please contact Sebastian.Luft@marquette.edu