

FIRST EXAM SAMPLE QUESTIONS

Select the best answer to each question. Print each answer, using CAPITAL letters, inside the box provided.

1. Which feature is not a criterion for true first words?
A. phonetic resemblance to an adult word
B. referential stability
C. always accompanied by a gesture
D. phonetic stability
2. An infant's use of one object to act on another object is referred to as
A. object permanence
B. representational play
C. means-end skill/tool use
D. undifferentiated action

Answer the question or fill in the word(s) that completes each statement.

1. A child who learns a phrase as a whole because he has heard it said repeatedly is showing evidence of _____ learning.
2. An example of a Personal-Social word is _____.

Match the descriptions in the left column to one of the terms in the right column.

- | | | |
|--------------------------|---------------|-----------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | labeling | a. syntax learning |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | : expansion | b. mapping of word meanings |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | : mutual gaze | c. pragmatic function |

Any of the tasks from the three homework assignments may appear as questions on the exam.

Study Suggestions

1. Study "Terminology to review for First Exam"
2. Review all Powerpoint slides
3. Review your notes
4. Review all homework assignments
5. Flip through assigned readings to remind yourself of their content